DETAILED ACTION

1. The amendment filed on 7/2/2007 has been entered.
2. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior office action.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. Claims 1-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Nishioka (E.P. 1,314,681).

Nishioka discloses an automated oscillation controlled crane (See Figure 1) as per the claimed invention.

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments filed 7/2/2007 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

5. In response to applicant's argument that the references fail to show certain features of applicant's invention, it is noted that the features upon which applicant relies (i.e., that the track control system calculates control voltages) are not recited in the rejected claim(s). Although the claims are interpreted in light of the specification, limitations from the specification are not read into the claims. See In re Van Geuns, 988 F.2d 1181, 26 USPQ2d 1057 (Fed. Cir. 1993). It is only necessary in the claims that starting points go directly or indirectly into the control system and that set points are generated, and these limitations are met.

6. Therefore, the claims stand rejected.

Conclusion

7. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

8. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
